

Matthew 16:18 | SCRIPTURE

Vlad Savchuk | SPEAKER

The Making of a Movement | SERMON

And I also say to you that you are Peter, and on this rock I will build My church, and the gates of Hades shall not prevail against it. Matthew 16:18

The Church of Jesus is strategically positioned to launch an assault on the gates of the underworld.

We are hunters, not the hunted. We don't retreat, we advance.

The Church is not a country club, it's an army of worshipping warriors.

Heaven promises an assault on hell's territory.

The cross of Jesus Christ was D-Day for the devil, marking the beginning of his end.

1. God didn't anoint us to build monuments but to make movements.

We can't be a movement if we don't have momentum.

2. A move of faith sparks momentum.

Heaven will back up "maybe" faith.

And there was trembling in the camp, in the field, and among all the people. The garrison and the raiders also trembled; and the earth quaked, so that it was a very great trembling. 1 Samuel 14:14-15

Go with those who have your future, not with those who share your past.

You don't need everyone's approval, support, or applause to start a spark.

Heaven favors the bold.

3. Before you soar, learn to crawl.

And Jonathan climbed up on his hands and knees with his armorbearer after him; and they fell before Jonathan. And as he came after him, his armorbearer killed them. 1 Samuel 14:13
