

Introduction

- Many people get so focused on training that they lose sight of the mission.
- Remember, your enemy is actively training and scheming to take you out.
- Don't take the season of discipleship for granted—it's essential preparation.

1. The Mission

- God has a mission He wants to plant in you.
- Question: Will you be good soil and receive it?
- The harvest is ready!

2. The Training Phase

- The training phase equips you for when the element of danger is introduced.
- If you give up during training, you'll never reach the battle you're called to fight.

3. Lessons from Hebrews 5:7-8 (NASB)

"In the days of His flesh, He offered up both prayers and supplications with loud crying and tears to the One able to save Him from death, and He was heard because of His piety. Although He was a Son, He learned obedience from the things which He suffered."

- Jesus demonstrated total reliance on God:
 - He prayed with loud crying and tears to the One able to save.
 - He was heard because of His reverence.
- Obedience was learned through a process of suffering.

4. Key Takeaways

- Reliance upon God is not limited to a season—it's a lifelong process.
- Don't allow distractions or struggles in training to derail your focus on the mission.
- Stay prepared: The harvest is ready, and the mission is urgent.
