

There are 3 different inner voices

1. God's voice - is this something God wants for me or wants me to do?
2. Demonic voice - is this something that the devil would want for me or want me to do?
3. My Soul's voice - is this something that I want for myself or I desire to do it?

Ways God Speaks

1. Scripture
2. People
3. Senses
4. Signs
5. Visions
6. Dreams

Signs

Asking for signs can be appropriate when seeking clarity, direction, or encouragement.

It's not wrong to seek a sign or confirmation from God, as long as it's not motivated by disobedience or a lack of faith.

God can use signs to build our faith, especially when we're learning to hear His voice.

Asking for a sign is more about relational dialogue with God, not about magic or formulas.

Sign must be interpreted through scripture not scripture interpreted through signs.

When it's OK:

- You're genuinely seeking God's will.
- You're stepping into something that requires faith or risk.
- You are already walking in obedience, not waiting on a sign as an excuse to delay.
- You're not trying to test or manipulate God.

When it's NOT ok:

- You're delaying obedience while waiting for perfect conditions.
- You're testing God out of doubt, fear, or unbelief. (e.g., Luke 1:18–20 – Zechariah struck mute)
- You ignore Scripture, wise counsel, or spiritual peace in favor of "spectacle."
- You're asking God to prove Himself when He's already spoken. (e.g., Matt 12:29 – Pharisees were rebuked)

Zechariah said to the angel, "How can I be sure this will happen? I'm an old man now, and my wife is also well along in years." Luke 1:18 NLT

But He answered and said to them, "An evil and adulterous generation seeks after a sign, and no sign will be given to it except the sign of the prophet Jonah. Matt 12:39 NKJV

So Gideon said to God, "If You will save Israel by my hand as You have said— 37 look, I shall put a fleece of wool on the threshing floor; if there is dew on the fleece only, and it is dry on all the ground, then I shall know that You will save Israel by my hand, as You have said." 38 And it was so. When he rose early the next morning and squeezed the fleece together, he wrung the dew out of the fleece, a bowlful of water. 39 Then Gideon said to God, "Do not be angry with me, but let me speak just once more: Let me test, I pray, just once more with the fleece; let it now be dry only on the fleece, but on all the ground let there be dew." 40 And God did so that night. It was dry on the fleece only, but there was dew on all the ground. Judges 6:36-40 NKJV
