

Five OT Offerings Are Broken Into:

1. Thank-you offerings (grain offering, fellowship offering)
2. I'm sorry offerings (burnt offering, sin offering, and guilt offering)

4 Sacrifices That Still Exist Today:

- Jesus' sacrifice (Heb 10:14)
- The sacrifice of praise (Heb 13:15)
- The sacrifice of the body (Rom 12:1)
- The sacrifice of finances (Heb 13:16)

1. Financial sacrifice is a test.

"Now it came to pass after these things that God tested Abraham, and said to him, 'Abraham!' And he said, 'Here I am.'" Genesis 22:1

When Israel entered the Promised Land, they sacrificed Jericho to God. Sacrifice brings a new season.

2. Financial sacrifice is when you give what you love, not what you don't need.

"Then He said, 'Take now your son, your only son Isaac, whom you love, and go to the land of Moriah, and offer him there as a burnt offering on one of the mountains of which I shall tell you.'" Genesis 22:2

Don't offer Ishmael when God asks for Isaac. Sacrifice is something that is outside your convenience.

3. Financial sacrifice opens the heart to God's presence.

"And Abraham said to his young men, 'Stay here with the donkey; the lad and I will go yonder and worship, and we will come back to you.'" Genesis 22:5

There are peaks in God's mountain that only those who sacrifice can enter.

4. Financial sacrifice is an act of worship.

"And Abraham said to his young men, 'Stay here with the donkey; the lad and I will go yonder and worship, and we will come back to you.'" Genesis 22:5

Sacrifice is not a waste; it's an act of worship.

5. Financial sacrifice releases supernatural faith.

"And Abraham said to his young men, 'Stay here with the donkey; the lad and I will go yonder and worship, and we will come back to you.'" Genesis 22:5

Selfishness will attack you before giving. Grief will attack you after you give. Many people "get" faith, but when you sacrifice, faith gets you.

6. Sacrifice establishes you in the fear of the Lord.

"And He said, 'Do not lay your hand on the lad, or do anything to him; for now I know that you fear God, since you have not withheld your son, your only son, from Me.'" Genesis 22:12

To overcome all other financial fears, we must embrace the best fear: the fear of the Lord.

7. Sacrifice brings God's provision.

"Then Abraham lifted his eyes and looked, and there behind him was a ram caught in a thicket by its horns. So Abraham went and took the ram, and offered it up for a burnt offering instead of his son." Genesis 22:13

Those who sacrifice cease to look to their job as a source; God becomes the source.

8. When you sacrifice, God promises to make you a blessing to others.

"And said: 'By Myself I have sworn, says the Lord, because you have done this thing, and have not withheld your son, your only son—blessing I will bless you, and multiplying I will multiply your descendants as the stars of the heaven and as the sand which is on the seashore; and your descendants shall possess the gate of their enemies. In your seed all the nations of the earth shall be blessed, because you have obeyed My voice.'" Genesis 22:16–18

A blessing is when God increases your impact, not just your income.

9. Sacrifice helps to heed God's voice.

"In your seed all the nations of the earth shall be blessed, because you have obeyed My voice." Genesis 22:18

Process of Hearing God for Sacrifice:

1. Prompting
2. Exciting
3. Fear
4. Logic
5. Doubt
6. Faith
7. Breakthrough

10. The sacrifice of one generation becomes the foundation of another.

- Mount Moriah: Abraham offered a sacrifice Gen 22:2–14
- Mount Moriah: David offered a sacrifice 2 Sam 24:16
- Mount Moriah: Solomon built a temple 1 Ch 3:1
